Howard A. Ward, 47, Caledonia, was instantly killed and the car which he was driving demolished when a split tire caused it to turn a series of somersaults on the Harding Highway, two and one-half miles west of Caledonia at about 5:30 p. m. yesterday.

Returning from Work
Returning home from his day's work on the M. Waite farm, west of Caledonia, Ward had just passed a car also going east and occupied by Milo Greyer and Wilson Tipton, both of Caledonia, when the accident occurred. Greyer and Tipton witnessed the accident and stated that Ward's car turned completely over three times following the report of the tire blow-out. They rushed to where Ward was lying at the roadside and attempted to revive him.

Dr. W. A. Crum, of Caledonia and the Timson ambulance were summoned to the scene. The body was removed to the Timson Undertaking parlors at Caledonia.

COOLIDGE ASKS GREATER
CAUTION AT CROSSINGS
Message Seeks Enlistment of Railroad and Public Cooperation

Chicago, April 19.—In an effort to bring about a reduction in the number of accidents at highway grade crossings, President Coolidge today called upon the public and the railroads to exercise greater caution at such points.

The appeal was made in a letter to Thomas H. Carrow, chairman of the safety section of the American Railway Association and read at the opening session of the seventh annual convention of the organization.

"Unquestionably the railroads must be required to give ample warning of the approach of trains to highway crossings, and throw around the highway traveler at such crossings suitable safeguards appropriate to the volume of traffic," Mr. Coolidge said.

"With equal force there must be public recognition of the need of a very high degree of care on the part of motorists approaching and passing over railroad crossings. If that care which prudence dictates is exercised, then we shall surely curb the increasing tragedies. It will also be reflected in reducing the vast number of street and highway casualties with which we are afflicted."

CLEVELAND OFFICIALS
INSPECT LOCAL PLANT

Second Out-of-Town Group in
Two Weeks Views Marion
Sewage Treatment Works

A party of five Cleveland men, including three officials of Cuyahoga County, visited Marion yesterday afternoon and inspected the local sewage treatment works in connection with plans being made for construction of a similar plant in the Rocky River district at Cleveland.

This was the second group of officials from other cities to inspect the local plant within two weeks, the first having come here from Fort Wayne, Ind., where a sewage treatment works to cost more than $2,000,000 is under consideration.

Yesterday's visitors were John Fisher and Jerry Smoot, members of the Cuyahoga County board of commissioners, Fred R. Williams, sanitary engineer of the same county, George B. Gascoigne, Cleveland consulting sanitary engineer and W. L. Havens, Gascoigne's chief assistant.

Gascoigne was the consulting engineer who planned the Marion treatment works and supervised the construction. He is being considered for employment in the same capacity in construction of the plants at Fort Wayne and Cleveland.

The Cuyahoga County visitors expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the Marion plant, which is reputed to be one of the most efficient in the country.

After their inspection trip here they left for Indianapolis to view the sewage treatment works there.

WILL CASE OF
BURR RAICHELEY

Efforts To Have Document Set
Aside in Federal Court
Fail

ACTION PENDING HERE

Marion Masonic Temple Co.
Given Bulk of $200,000
Estate by Will

Efforts of May Berg, Minneapolis, and Frederick C. Raicheley, Kansas City, to set aside the will of the late Burr Raicheley in federal court, terminated unsuccessfully for them in Washington late yesterday when the United States Supreme Court refused to admit the case for review.

This action of the supreme court throws the case out of federal court.

The Marion Masonic Temple Co., under the provisions of the will, is to receive the bulk of the $200,000 estate, including the tract of land at the northeast corner of State and Church-sts. This property was given to the temple company as the site for a Masonic temple.

The will also stipulated that $5,000 of the money included in the cash bequest to the temple company be used in the erection of a suitable memorial in the temple to Mr. Raicheley's dead sister, Lella.

Federal Charges May Be Placed
Against Boat Owners

Cleveland, April 19.—Federal investigation of facts in connection with an epidemic of typhoid fever aboard the lake freighter Lake Gaither, in which three members of the crew died, last autumn, was under way here today. Federal officials said information given them indicated that untreated water from the lake and from the St. Lawrence River was used aboard the boat, on a voyage from Cleveland to Detroit and return. Junior Mendelsohn, of Chicago, representative of the public health service, conferred with local authorities here last night, relative to possibility of action against the owners of the vessel, or its captain.

DONAHAY PLACES VETO
ON THREE MORE BILLS

Measures Regarding Officials' Salaries and Public Funds Insurance Affected

Columbus, April 19.—Governor Vic Donahay today informed Ohio legislators that he has vetoed three more measures passed this session: The Marshall Bill, proposing to increase the salary of the penitentiary chaplain from $1,500 to $2,500 annually. The Able Bill, authorizing theft insurance for funds of securities in custody of the county treasurer, and the Roberts Bill, to increase salaries of county commissioners and to prohibit them from collecting certain fees.

The Marshall Bill, the governor declared, contained some legal defects. This measure, he stated, sought to amend a section of Ohio Law which was repealed 16 years ago. The governor also, pointed out that the chaplain's salary now is $1,800 instead of $1,500 a year.

The Able Bill, according to the governor, "would immediately expose our 88 county treasurers to the solicitations of innumerable salesmen. Not only would it result in added expenditure of public funds," the governor continued, "but it would serve as the entering wedge to subsequent insurance of every custodian of public funds in the state."

"The abolition of fees (as sought in the Roberts Bill) is laudable," declared Donahay. "The objection, however, is that the proposed fixed salaries would amount to $122,646 more than the total of present salaries and fees. Ditch fees in 1925 amounted to only $9,186 and sanitary fees to $30,987, a total of $40,173. Had the general assembly merely increased the fixed salaries in this amount, I would have been glad to sign the bill," the governor said.

Supt. Jesse H. Mason Named First Vice Head of Organization; Plans Discussed for Campaign To Raise $25,000 Toward Operating Expenses

Brief addresses were made by President Schoenlaub and Mr. Mason, each emphasizing the work of the Y. during the last year and discussing the splendid opportunities that lie immediately ahead.

The budget for the coming year was discussed with each chairman being asked to express his opinion on that part of the budget which especially concerned his departmental interests. Following such discussion, the grand total of expenditures was set at $42,408, with estimated receipts from all sources being $17,700. This leaves the amount to be raised by subscriptions at $25,000.

Justice Scudder Makes Plea To Fill Jury Box Before Panel
Is Exhausted

Courthouse, Long Island City, N. Y., April 19.—The tedious task of examining prospective jurors was resumed today, the second day of the trial of Mrs. Ruth Brown Snyder and Henry Judd Gray for the murder of Albert Snyder, the woman's husband. Twelve more witnesses were summoned to the jury box when court was called to order this morning by Justice Townsend Scudder. Fifty witnesses were examined yesterday and none accepted.

Faced with the prospect of a long drawn out battle to obtain a jury, Justice Scudder made a plea at the opening of court that special efforts be made to fill the jury box before the panel is exhausted.

"Never in the history of Queens County," said Judge Scudder, "has it been necessary to swear in a special panel or seek a new jury list."

William E. Young, publicity man, finally was accepted as the first juror. He will act as foreman.

Young was the fifty-eighth teleman examined.

Edward Kavanaugh, 68, of 364 N. State-st., well known Erie engineer and former city councilman, was instantly killed at 3:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon when he was struck by an East-bound Big Four freight train at the Bainbridge and Third-sts. crossings in Dayton.

Mr. Kavanaugh had stopped his engine to repair the boiler and was struck when he came around the Erie engine and stepped in the path of the Big Four train. He was prevented from seeing the oncoming freight by a bend in the curve of the road, witnesses say.

The Big Four train was in charge of Engineer W. N. Nelson, 66, of Sharonville, O. W. E. Flint, 30, of 478 W. Columbus-st., was the fireman on the Erie engine.

George Kavanaugh, son of Mr. Kavanaugh, was killed in a similar accident in Gallon in 1900. He also was struck by an engine dying in transit.

The body arrived today on Erie Train No. 10, and was removed to his late home. Funeral arrangements are not completed but will be announced later.

Mr. Kavanaugh was born in London, Canada, Feb. 1, 1858, and was the son of Thomas and Bridget Kavanaugh, natives of Ireland and both now deceased. Mr. Kavanaugh came here from Gallon with the Erie Terminal and has been employed as an engineer, boiler, fireman and engineer with that company for 65 years. He had been employed as an engineer since 1888.

Charleston, W. Va., April 19.—Mayor W. W. Wertz, Republican incumbent, was returned to office by the small margin of 227 votes on the low of another election available today from Charleston's municipal election yesterday.

The real value of having all eighth grade students from every school in the county take the examination at the same time, Supt. C. B. Rayburn pointed out, is the incentive for students to make better grades. "This idea promotes competition among students."

"Since this plan of conducting final tests was announced throughout the county teachers have noticed an appreciable increase in application to studies among students," Mr. Rayburn said. "The result has been the same in every district."

Examination papers will be graded under the direct supervision of the Marion County Board of Examiners, according to plans outlined by Superintendent Rayburn.

Survey Shows Marion County School Students in Good Health

CLINICS BEING STRESSED BY LOCAL OFFICER

Commissioner N. Siffritt Says Results of Work Have Been Remarkable

The general health of the 3,200 odd students enrolled in Marion County schools is good.

That is the conclusion of Dr. N. Siffritt, health commissioner of Marion County, who for the last three years has been conducting clinics and physical examinations in all rural school districts.

In an effort to better the health of rural school children the county health department under the direction of Dr. Siffritt and with the assistance of Mrs. L. Davis Travis, county health nurse is conducting pre-school clinics. These clinics were begun about three years ago and the results obtained have been remarkable, according to those in charge.

Pioneer in Work
In this work Marion County is a pioneer and many of the plans worked out here have found practical application in many other sections of the state. Progress of the work in this county has been watched with interest by health officials in other sections.

The pre-school clinic work is considered the most practical that can be carried on in connection with schools. In this manner children are examined for physical defects before they start to school. If the child has a physical defect remedial measures are urged. In this way scores of children whose

Radio to Play Part

31 STATIONS PLAN TO BROADCAST

In Reunion of Yale

Radio broadcasting will play a large part in the reunion in the history of Yale University, Wednesday night, when a total of 31 stations and thousands of miles of special circuits will be utilized for that purpose.

Yale alumni will gather in nearly 200 American and foreign cities and parents were unaware of their condition have undergone simple treatments or minor operations before school age. When the time arrived for them to go to school they were not physically handicapped.

Procedure Changed
Since their work was started here the procedure has been greatly changed. Under the new arrangement Mrs. Travis, the county nurse, does missionary work in the homes of children of pre-school age. In other words she visits the home and discusses with the mother the benefits of the pre-school clinic. She points out that the child if handicapped by an easily remedied physical defect, may be retarded unless the handicap is removed before school age.

This year Mrs. Travis is making two calls to every home where there is a child planning to go to school next year. On her first trip she acquaints the parents with the work that is being carried on in the clinic. She stresses the importance of a complete physical examination of the child before entering school.

On her second visit Mrs. Travis again talks over the proposed clinic and if the parents are interested arranges for the mother or father to bring the child to the clinic.

Attitude Changed
Several years ago when the work was first being introduced here parents were skeptical. Many did not understand and it was necessary for the nurse to pay three or four visits. As the work continued and the results became evident parents were more willing to send their children to the clinic for examination.

One of the clinics is being held today at Kirkpatrick with approximately 20 children of pre-school age scheduled for examination. Others are planned at Prospect on May 4, Morral, May 5 and another later at LaRue.

With the exception of one school, Necker, the work has been carried into every school district in the county. One clinic has been conducted at Green Camp, one at Claridon, three at Prospect, two at LaRue, one at Agosta, two at Morral, one at Grand Prairie, one at Pleasant, two at Caladonia, two at Martel and one at Waldo. The one being held at Kirkpatrick today is the first one in that school district.

Results of a recent survey in the rural schools of the county reveal some very interesting facts.

Teeth Lead List
Chief among the list of defects discovered by officials in their pre-school clinics and examination comes teeth. Records show that 35 per cent of all the students in county schools need the services of a dentist. A majority of those who are urged to have their teeth attended to follow the advice given them, officials say.

Next comes gutters. Records show that 25 per cent of the girls in county schools have gutters, a majority of them in mild form. Among the boys the percentage is only 17, making an average for the two classes of 25 per cent.

Impaired Vision
Twenty per cent have impaired vision. In many such a matter is of little importance but school officials assert that impaired vision is a very decided handicap to a child. While no authentic information is available at present on the number of students in the impaired vision group who have had this condition corrected officials have learned that within the last year 63 students were fitted with glasses. In all of these cases remedial measures were recommended by health officials following examination.

Seventy-three students have undergone operations for removal of tonsils or adenoids. In this likewise, the operations were recommended by health officials after examination showed the students to be in need of such surgical attention.

Results Shown
Value of the examinations and the subsequent corrective measures taken in the county in the last three years is shown in the class room, according to health and school officials. Invariably the student who has had a physical defect corrected has made better grades and has become a keener student.

In several instances children who were below average students climbed into the division of above-average pupils within a year after their physical handicap had been removed.

At present the pre-school clinic idea is being stressed not only in this district but in other sections of the state.

HAMMERS OF SILVER AND GOLD

Banking has been pictured as a mighty smith, toiling with hammers of silver and gold at the forge of commerce. With these instruments of credit, banking helps shape the destiny of trade, helps build the structure of business.

The Marion National Bank has its place with other strong institutions at the forge of commerce, in the workshop of industry. You'll find our service most helpful to your business.

HOCKING VALLEY REPAIR WORK IS MOVING RAPIDLY

New Tracks Soon Will Be Ready for Service; Local Rail Briefs

Work on the new repair tracks of the Hocking Valley in the local yards is moving rapidly. The new tracks will soon be ready for use and the old rail will be torn up.

The new tracks are located in the north yards, near the Garden City clear of the right-of-way of the Hocking. The old tracks and sheds for repair work have been located just north of the Union Station.
The change of tracks is being made to remove the repair rail from near the right-of-way of the main tracks of the Hocking Valley. An effort is being made along the entire division to eliminate, wherever possible, any structures that are in the immediate vicinity of the main tracks.
The change will also take all Hocking Valley additions to the railroad in this vicinity into the north yards, with the exception of the 100-carbon steel water tank, recently erected at Bellefontaine.
Supervisor F. A. Sparks' office is located near the Union Station.

Return From New York
C. E. Strong and C. H. Coffman, claim inspectors of the Kent Division,
Erie Railroad, have returned from New York, where they spent a few days on company's business.

Visits In Columbus
John Zuck, clerk in the office of Track Supervisor F. A. Sparks of the Toledo Division, was in Columbus yesterday.

Freight Loadings
Loadings of revenue freight for the week ended March 26 exceeded the million car mark for the third consecutive week this year, the American Railway Association has announced in a bulletin.

Total loadings for the week of March 26 amounted to 1,008,888 cars.
This was an increase of 2,077 cars over the preceding week, the increase being due almost entirely to the heavier movement of miscellaneous freight. Small increases over the week before were also reported in the loadings of ore and coal.

Surplus of Freight Cars
The car service division of the American Railway Association reports that Class A railroads on March 23 had 252.75 surplus freight cars in good repair and immediately available for service.

SEEK SAFETY DEVICES FOR ARMY AIRPLANES

Washington, April 18.—Increased safety for military planes flying over mountainous sections of the country is being sought for by the Army Air Corps. The latest has been to equip the machines with smoke candles giving forth dense gray vapor, easily distinguished from smoke made by ordinary fires. It is hoped by use of these candles to direct relief parties home quickly to air men who have made forced landings or who have wrecked their planes.

Efforts are being made by the Air Corps to inform all persons living in mountainous or sparsely settled sec-smoke so that when they see it they will investigate promptly and render what assistance they can.

FOR Acid Stomach PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in water for indigestion or sour-ness, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

BETTER THAN SODA
For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three-times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

Thirty Thousand Persons Homeless in Floods of South

SITUATION IN LOWER VALLEY GROWS WORSE

Flooding of St. Francis Basin as Result of Levee Break Feared

Memphis, Tenn., April 19.—With the St. Francis Basin in jeopardy from a break in the levee near New Orleans, Mo., government engineers today mounted the efforts of hundreds of men to prevent a change in the course of the Mississippi River at that point.

Engineers said only on act of providence could a sudden standstill in the river prevent the St. Francis Basin from being flooded. The water was rising steadily today, and efforts of engineers were directed toward raising the barriers and otherwise preventing them.

Reports that the levee at Farrington on the Little River had broken, but it was admitted that the water was lapping over the side. All about more than 1,000 men were working to prevent the levee from breaking before the pressure of the high waters.

Situation Worse

The flood situation especially in Arkansas, Mississippi and along the lower Mississippi Valley became worse today.

A dozen deaths are more or less attributed to the floods, while nearly 30,000 are homeless, according to Red Cross estimates. Property damage and loss to farmers as the result of thousands of acres being inundated, is incalculable, but it probably will run into millions.

Refugees crowded into hastily constructed camps on the hills in the flood-ridden areas, and the danger of disease, shortage of water and food was constantly increasing.

The Red Cross, however, declared it was getting the situation in hand as rapidly as possible. Tents, medical supplies and clothing and even tin food was being distributed among the unfortunate in the stricken districts.

SOUTHEAST KANSAS IN GRIP OF FLOOD

Kansas City, Mo., April 19.—Southeast Kansas was today in the grip of a flood, the third in two weeks, with waters rising at a rapid rate following heavy rains.

Burlington, Kans., and Iola, were hardest hit, the Nesho River at the latter place spreading out over low lands for three miles.

The Cedar River at Madison was rising at the rate of 30 inches an hour during the night and by morning had flooded lowlands and driven residents from the town.

Many were again homeless today after they had returned from the two floods last week to set their homes in order.

WIFE OF FORMER MARION LAWYER IS CLAIMED

Services Held at Washington Today for Mrs. Shalie Willard

Funeral services for Mrs. Shalie W. Willard 65, widow of Major Horace H. Willard, former Marion lawyer and an intimate friend of President Garfield, were held at 1 o'clock this afternoon in Washington, D. C., according to word received here today. Burial was in the Arlington National Cemetery.

Mrs. Willard died Saturday in Sibley Hospital, Washington. She had made her home in Washington for more than 40 years, having come there from Appomattox, Va. She was the daughter of Martin Webb of Appomattox and a descendant of General John Stark of revolutionary fame. Her services in the Red Cross during the world war won her a certificate of honorable mention signed by the late President Woodrow Wilson. She was also a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Major Willard was active in the Union Army during the Civil War and was a close mate and personal friend of Garfield. Members of Garfield's family have letters indicating his intention of appointing Major Willard Attorney General of Ohio, but the appointment was never made. Following the war he maintained law offices both here and in Washington.

HEWITT DEFENCE BEGINS TO INTRODUCE EVIDENCE

Counsel for Youth Prepared To Use Between Eight and 12 Alibi Witnesses

Jefferson, April 19.—Defense counsel for Florio Hewitt, 16-year-old Connecticut boy, this afternoon began the introduction of evidence which they hope will clear the youth of charges of murdering Mrs. Colin Brown and her five-year-old son, Fred, Jr., at the Brown home in North Connetquot, Feb. 14.

The state rested its case at noon and the defense counsel was to start its testimony at 1:30 p. m. Dunlavy, chief of defense counsel, announced he would use between eight and 12 witnesses. Eight of these will be "alibi witnesses," he said, and will testify that Hewitt could not possibly have committed the crime, since he was not in the vicinity at the time of the double murder.

The youth is being tried on the specific charge of beating the little boy to death.

Court officials today predicted the case would go to the jury about Thursday.

FORMER MARION WOMAN CLAIMED BY INFIRMITIES

DEARBORN AS 'RIVAL' OF GOTHAM

Top photo shows the heart of New York's financial district, as seen from the air. Below, in contrast, is the main street, Michigan avenue, in Dearborn, Mich. Ford is seen on the left below.

Dearborn, Mich., April 19.—So this is the only place in the world where a billionaire lives!

Henry Ford's home town is a distinct contrast to New York, where there are many multi-millionaires. And Dearborn's financial district is a shock compared with New York's. There are no canyons of huge buildings, no massive banks, no scurrying crowds, associated with a metropolis of wealth.

But Dearborn has the laugh on New York and its Wall Street and its Broad Street and its lower Broadway, and, in fact, on the financial district of every other city on the globe. Indeed, the destiny of many another town depends on the best known citizen of Dearborn. For that matter, Dearborn is a world capital, for there are thousands of workmen throughout the world who depend on this potentate—the "leading citizen of the town."

Both fine and costs were suspended by Judge Martin when it was found that the arresting officer had failed to appear as a prosecuting witness.

Young Brown was accused of having taken a small quantity of coal from the Pennsylvania right-of-way.

YOUTH INJURED HERE UNDERGOES OPERATION

Clarence Tanner, 10, Suffers Serious Infection in Head Wound

Clarence Tanner, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Tanner, Kenton, formerly of Marion, who sustained injuries about the head while playing in the Marion Steam Shovel Co. yards on Unacop-ay more than two weeks ago, was scheduled to undergo an operation in San Antonio Hospital, Kenton, this morning.

The child sustained deep scalp wounds. Several days after the wounds had been dressed an infection developed, which necessitated the operation. Dr. L. L. Roebuck, local physician, went to Kenton early today to have charge of the case.

The accident occurred here two weeks ago last Sunday when the child and his parents were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Mann, Henry-st.

ARMY AIR CORPS SCHOOL TO STAGE DEMONSTRATION

Washington, April 19.—The War Department has approved for air corps demonstrations to take place at the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga., May 3; at the Cavalry School, Fort Riley, Kas., May 5; and at the General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kas., May 7.

These demonstrations part of the regular course of instruction at the schools, will include simulated attacks against ground forces, laying of smoke screens, aerial reconnaissance and observation, aerial combat and communication between ground and air.

Eleven planes, including pursuit, attack, bombardment and observation types, will be used at Fort Riley and Leavenworth, while 10 attack planes will take part in the work at Fort Benning. The planes will come from Selfridge Field, Mich.; Fort Crockett, Tex., and Langley Field, Va.

Sailors have had a good deal of influence on feminine fashions one time and another. The all-conquering jumper was originally inspired by nautical dress and now some of the trimmest new spring coats and skirts show a distinct touch of naval uniform about them.

CONFUSION IN CHINA GROWING MORE COMPLETE

Chiang Kai Shek Forms Moderate Government in Nanking; Celebration Held

(By International News Service)

China's state of confusion became more complete today.

Chiang Kai Shek has formed a moderate government in Nanking and issued orders for a day of general celebration of the event today. It is believed that Chiang may attempt to force the Hankow government of extremists out and that he will continue his military endeavors against the north.

The Hankow government has declared an embargo against silver and is reported to be moving troops to thwart any military movement against Hankow by Chiang.

While anti-communists reids by Chiang supporters and reported successful in Amoy, Canton and other centers, the extremists are reported in full control in Kiangsi province, taking drastic measures against their enemies.

Shanghai Quiet

The Peking government continues its military efforts against the Nationalists, but for the moment it is indicated that the campaign has stagnated near Peking.

Shanghai is quiet and some of the measures of defense have been relaxed but tense conditions still are reported along the Yangtze, especially at Hankow, where Chinese mobs are angrily protesting against the silver embargo.

The dispatch of foreign warships to Nanking and Hankow has led to reports of a possible naval demonstration by the powers.

Sanctified statements in London indicate that the powers may delay further action with regard to the Nanking protests until the issues between Chiang and the Hankow government is more clear.

SECOND SET OF NOTES TO HANKOW

Washington, April 19.—The United States has again scored a diplomatic victory in the Chinese situation.

This became apparent today when it was learned that a second set of identical notes touching upon the Nanking outrages will be handed to the Nationalist foreign minister in Hankow either Thursday or Friday.

These notes will be moderate but firm in language and will not directly mention the possibility of exacting sanctions from the Nationalists, nor will a time limit be set for a reply. The notes will reflect the attitude the United States has taken toward the Nanking incident from the start.

President Coolidge and Secretary Kellogg have both taken the view that this country had nothing to gain by drastic action with respect to the Nanking affair. On the other hand, a drastic or hostile move might, it has been feared, lead to reprisals against Americans remaining in isolated sections of China.

Moreover, it is known here that Great Britain does not desire to sacrifice the united front of the powers in China in order to punish the parties responsible for the outrages of March 24. The British have felt that swift and decisive punitive action would have raised their prestige in the Yangtze Valley if it were the support of all the powers.

But with a break in the rank of the foreigners, the British believe that any action at all by the powers would be laughed at by the Chinese.

Work on Great Bridge To Proceed.

The Port of New York Authority, a body which came into being as the result of a compact between the states of New York and New Jersey for the handling of construction and regulatory matters in connection with that port, is at last advertising for bids for construction work on what is to be the world's greatest bridge—the mighty structure which is to span the Hudson and directly connect the two states named, the plans for which have heretofore been described at some length in these columns.

The delay was caused by the action of the New Jersey legislature in enacting a law which provided that all contracts entered into by the Port of New York Authority were subject to the veto power of the governor and state house commission of that state. What the state house commission had to do with bridge building, nobody seemed able to explain, but almost anybody could understand that such a law could easily make the bridge the playing of politics. A halt was at once called on all action in connection with the bridge. Such was the storm of protest which arose in both states that the New Jersey legislature rescinded its action, not however without having first passed a law placing the veto power in the hands of the governor, an action for which provision had been made in the compact between the two states, but which had never previously been taken. To place the two states on an equality, New York at once passed a law giving Governor Smith, of that state, the veto power over the Port Authority's acts, and thus it will proceed with construction, with all its acts subject to veto by either Governor Smith or Governor Moore, of New Jersey, or both.

Work on the excavation and the construction of the foundations for the piers will now proceed, but it is hardly probable that it will be carried along with the vigor which would have obtained had not the action of the Port Authority been made subject to a veto on the part of one governor or the other at any time. The Port Authority will naturally be slow to enter into contracts for the various classes of construction until plans and contracts have been submitted to and approved by both the governors. Such approval may be speedily secured. Again it is possible that the securing of it will cause long delays. It's a case of creating a board of experts to do a work and then making its acts subject to the approval of men who have neither practical nor theoretical knowledge along that line of endeavor.

Timber Cutting and Floods.

During what may be termed the recent minor flood in this county, we pointed out in these columns that we as a people are responsible for the flood ills from which we suffer; that we brought them upon ourselves in part by deepening and straightening the channels of our smaller streams, but chiefly by cutting away our timber without at the same time resorting to reforestation.

Since the development of the record flood, which has endangered the lives of thousands, driven tens of thousands from their homes, inundated many hundreds of thousands of acres of rich farming land, caused almost incalculable monetary damage in the Missouri, Arkansas and Mississippi valleys and is still growing in volume, many of our exchanges are voicing a regret similar to that we have previously expressed that the imperative demand for reforestation has not been recognized by our people generally. Without exception, they have held that until reforestation becomes general, causing a dissemination of our rainfall, we are bound to suffer from floods.

Stress being so generally laid on the need for reforestation, it is interesting to know that great lumber interests have at last begun to appreciate the wisdom of reforestation and are resorting to it. Their purpose is the prolongation of the life of the lumber industry, rather than the erection of a comparative safeguard against floods, but no matter what the purpose, the result in accomplishing one object will be the accomplishment of the other.

Speaking on the subject a few weeks ago, William Greeley, chief forester of the United States, said that it was not so long ago that nearly all large private holdings of forest lands were in unstable ownership in the sense that the owners did not contemplate permanent retention of titles; that the point of view of many lumbermen was that they were engaged in an essential industry—the manufacture of lumber—which necessitated timber land ownership as the source of supply of raw material; that their business was utilizing lumber, not growing it, and that what might happen to the land after they were through with it did not concern them. Had they been charged with being destroyers rather than producers of wealth, these men would have looked upon such a charge as distorted, unfair and monstrous.

But lumbermen, at least open-minded lumbermen, the chief forester stated, are beginning to understand that such ownership imposes an obligation upon them, as business men, to weigh carefully the methods of forestry. They now realize that what happens to land is not only a matter of importance to them, but also a matter of vital concern to the public.

The greatest single obstacle to the rapid spread of timber growing, Chief Forester Greeley says, is now recognized by wide-awake lumbermen as lack of responsibility in forest land ownership. This unstable land ownership is represented by the land speculator, the lumber company which intends to dispose of its holdings when they are cut over, or the state without a policy of permanent forestry. Happily, we have the assurance of Mr. Greeley, great lumber companies have recognized these dangers to the lumber industry and they are now to be numbered not only as advocates, but also as practicers, of reforestation, and thus in protecting their own interests they have become as well the protectors of those of the general public.

It will be slow work. It will take decades to restore the condition which once obtained, but the need of reforestation is at last recognized, and at last reforestation is making headway.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

It was not long ago that I told you about a congressional friend of mine who fainted and was being held in an upright position until the arrival of a doctor.

A few days ago another member of congress fainted in the barber's chair. The terrified barbers and congressmen present held this poor man in a sitting posture until medical aid arrived. Had as the heart attack was, the kindly efforts of would-be helpers nearly killed the victim.

As a matter of fact, I can almost say a fainting person would be better off if he had no friends present during the attack. Nature would cause him to slump down and fall on the floor. In a reclining position the brain would get a fair share of the slowly moving blood stream and consciousness would be restored more speedily.

What are you to do if somebody becomes unconscious and it is your business to administer the first aid treatment?

Take a good look at the patient: Is the face purple, the blood vessels injected? Or is the face white, the lips colorless?

Feel the pulse: Is the pulse slow, firm and full? Or is the pulse weak and fast, almost imperceptible to the touch?

I have spoken of the pulse. Everybody should know how to "take" it. As you sit reading this, place your left hand on the arm of your chair, with the palm turned upward. Place the tips of the fingers of the right hand along the outer part of the left wrist, just below the base of the thumb.

If you will feel about a bit, you will discover a tendon running from above into the palm of the left hand. Your fingers are to be placed just to the outer side of this tendon and on a line with it. Press the tips of the fingers into the flesh and you will immediately get the pulse.

Practice doing this on yourself and on your friends until you know exactly how to get and count the pulse. Everybody should know how to do this. Then you will be a useful citizen in case of trouble in your locality.

To return to the unconscious patient: You find his face blanched and his lips colorless. On attempting to get the pulse you find it very faint, or quite imperceptible. You know the person is in a faint and not suffering from a "stroke," when the opposite symptoms, already described, will be noted.

Place the patient on the floor or a sofa at once, without a pillow. Elevate the feet by the use of a tipped over chair, or the sofa pillows. Head low and feet high—this is the rule.

If he is conscious enough to swallow, you may give aromatic spirits of ammonia, whiskey, brandy or other stimulant. But if he is unconscious do not give fluids which may run down the gullet and cause drowning.

I'll tell you more another time, but if you do these things and send for the doctor, you may be saving a life.

Editorial Comment.

INFERIOR JURIES.

There is a great deal of force in the statements of Judge Ira W. Jayne made to the members of the Detroit Engineering society regarding the results of the evasion of jury duty by business and professional men. No matter how conscientious and able judges may be, no matter how competent and alert prosecuting officers may be, no matter how effective police may be, no matter how wisely drawn penal laws may be, justice will not be administered as it ought to be administered, and the public will not be protected as it ought to be protected as long as the composition of the average jury remains what it is.

Men and women who serve on juries because a four dollar a day fee is an inducement are not, as a rule, the sort of men and women intellectually, who should be deciding whether persons accused of crime are innocent or are guilty. And regardless of the amount of the remuneration, those who look upon jury service as a "job" and undertake it for what they get out of it can not, in the nature of things, be in a proper frame of mind to administer justice as it ought to be administered.

The ideal jurymen are a juryman who serves because he desires to perform his duty as a citizen and servant of society and to whom pay for the work is a secondary consideration.

Naturally it will be impossible ever to so redeem the jury system that all men and women drawn to panels will take this elevated attitude. But it is an old saying that "a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump," and if men and women of intelligence and conscience will quit almost universally resorting to evasions and excuses in order to avoid doing an important part of their natural duty as Americans, they can at least help the situation materially. Incidentally, having performed their duty, they will be in a better position than before to criticize judges, prosecutors and police that may "fall down," or neglect their work or play politics with the machinery of justice.—Detroit Free Press

LABOR GAINING CONTROL.

The extent to which employees of the Standard Oil group have been slowly acquiring the stock of their respective companies partly explains the new Standard Oil policy of paying larger dividends.

Employees of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey now hold approximately 750,000 shares of the common stock. Last year the Standard Oil Company of Indiana announced that the issuance of 390,000 shares of capital stock to 15,300 employees will make employees the second largest holders of capital stock in total, compared with holdings of 5.4 per cent. by the Rockefeller interests. Likewise, 12,000 employees in the Standard Oil Company of California are shareholders.

These new owners in overalls expect rewards in the form of actual dividend checks in amounts consonant with the real earnings of their properties, so that the largest cash dividend for any quarter since 1913 which was paid out this month, $55,538,056, would seem to indicate that the directors are sensitive to the wishes and desires of the new owners.—Fortune Magazine.

DOING WELL.

Three of Uncle Sam's wards—Porto Rico, Haiti and Panama—are reported to be doing well. Nice babies! Secretary of War Davis, home from an inspection of the little shavers, brings bright accounts of progress. Porto Rico is building roads, schools and public buildings. Better still, headway is being made toward conquering tropical diseases and the bookworm. The Panama canal is booming. The tonnage carried in March reached a total of only 100,000 tons short of the all-time records.

These reports are gratifying reminders that the government of the United States is benefiting, not exploiting the people for whom it has assumed guardianship.—Toledo Blade.

Dinner Stories.

A farmer went into a city restaurant. Beside him sat two men eating fish. Presently one of them signaled the waiter and ordered a bottle of near-beer. "The fish want to swim," he asked. The farmer, who had ordered roast pork, thought this a clever remark. "Walter," he roared, "a bottle of near-beer—the pig wants a drink!"

The sergeant was taking the recruits' squad. "For the last time," he shouted, "I ask you the simple question: 'What is a fortification?'" The recruits stood fast to a man. No one answered. Striding up to the most intelligent-looking man, the N. C. O. bawled: "Tell me, what is a fortification?"

The answer came like a cork out of a bottle: "Two twifications, sergeant!"

There was a very slight earthquake felt in St. Moritz on one occasion and the same day a genial visitor, on taking his seat at a restaurant table, remarked to the waiter, who understood little English: "Well you have earthquakes here, do you?" "Earthquakes," beat the waiter, but he would not admit anything that he thought implied a lack in the hotel.

The Way of the World.

BY GROVE PATTERSON.

Do you remember these lines by Rhys Carpenter in "Contemporary Verse?" And all the actors speak their lines as bravely and as fair, As though a king with all his court were watching there.

How many of us work for the audience? We do a good job if we feel pretty sure of being noticed. Praise is food and we are all hungry.

A beautiful dagger with a gold blade has been dug up in Egypt. It was made more than 5,000 years ago. It was made for use in killing. Today civilization has advanced so much that we better little with mere daggers. We spend $11,000,000 and build a warship that kills many people at one time. That's efficiency. And if there is anything that our advanced civilization has taught us it has taught us to be efficient.

Have we learned to ride the horse of prosperity so skillfully that he will never throw us again? There are business men of sound judgment today who are ready to say there is no reason why we should ever have hard times in the United States in the old sense. The federal banking system has done much to stabilize conditions. Business is learning to adjust itself to the ups and downs of the seasons. And high wages have done wonders for folks.

In the "Farm Journal" we read: "When some one stops advertising, some one stops buying. When some one stops buying, some one stops selling. When some one stops selling, some one stops making. When some one stops making, some one stops earning. When some one stops earning, everybody stops buying."

All of this may be translated into the certainty that there is no substitute for work. If you are reasonably young and in reasonably good health and don't work and earn, just what are you doing here?

Old Omar isn't much read these days. He might well be read more. Before you make your next sudden, impulsive decision, read again his well-known verse:

The moving finger writes, and having writ, Moves on; nor all your piety nor wit Shall lure it back to cancel half a line, Nor all your tears wash out a word of it.

Today's Worst Story.

BY WILL ROGERS.

They say there's still bar-rooms in New York and Chicago where fellows go and put their feet on brass rails and eat free lunch and buy treats for the house and all that. Maybe there is. But I'll bet the number of treats for the house isn't great except when a favorite stock goes up ten points all of a sudden.

Well, there was a Scotchman in New York that took a couple of business friends into one of these bar-rooms and bought them a drink. I don't know what the idea was, but it was some kind of a big deal he was expecting to put over after the guys got the drink. The guests didn't seem to want to talk business on one round, so the Scotchman groaned out loud and ordered another round. When he had to pay for the second round this hero turned kinda sick at his stomach and suggested that maybe this hoot wasn't much good anyhow. The guests were just beginning to talk as though they were willing to stay all day. The Scotchman began buttoning up his overcoat, and one of the guys says:

"Well, Sandy, we'll have the last drink with you."

"Now," says Sandy, turning to the door, "ye hae it ready!"—Copyright, 1927.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. MINTYRE.

New York, April 19.—The reason Broadway remains the world's most interesting street, perhaps because it is typical only of itself, has no comparisons. Indeed, it is not a street as a state of mind. The street facets are merely the outward show.

No street so perpetually maintains the life of the carnival. Clocks have discovered people turning into Broadway from side streets more sprightly. They are touched and a small boy is touched by sight of the elephant.

Broadway has not grown up to attain a maturity. Its childishness is expressed in a jumble of waffle shops, magic stores, parlors, quick photographers, magic stores, auction sales, flea circuses, orange and apple drink stands and other folk.

The surface is cynical, but underneath that shallow optimism prompting hundreds of men and women to live solely for the day, their wits. To be broke on Broadway is a calamity. It is merely a laugh. A "millionaire kid" often sells pencils.

CRYSTAL LAKE PARK TO OPEN MIDDLE OF MAY

First Dance in Big Pavilion
Will Be April 28, Scherff
Announces

GUY LOMBARDO

Opening of Crystal Lake park with all of the amusement attractions in operation will take place on or before May 15.

In preparation for the event, workmen are now employed at the park making repairs and improvements in order that the grounds and all of the equipment may be in perfect condition for the opening.

This work includes repair and painting of the various amusement devices, scraping and rolling of driveways and parking space improvements and extensions.

The season's dance program will start prior to opening of the park as a whole, Manager Fred B. Scherff announced today. The opening dance is scheduled for Thursday night, April 28, when music will be furnished by Guy Lombardo and his orchestra, known as the Royal Canadians.

Elaborate Program
This year's dance program will be the most elaborate ever planned for Crystal Lake Park, Manager Scherff says, some of the best-known orchestras and bands in the country being booked. At least two large Victor Recording bands will appear at the park each month, according to arrangements now under way.

In preparation for this schedule of attractions, the dance pavilion is being redecorated and other improvements made.

Well-known musical organizations already engaged for the early part of the season, in addition to the Lombardo orchestra, are Richards Ramblers, formerly known as Zex Conroy's Orchestra, which will be here for a two weeks' stay beginning May 1; Charles Dorenberger and his Victor Recording Orchestra, to open an engagement on May 15, and Coon Sanders and the original "Night Hawks" to start on Sunday, May 20.

Lombardo's Successful
The pavilion will be open every night starting on May 1 and continuing through the entire season.

Lombardo's orchestra, engaged for the opening event, has attained a nationwide reputation in radio broadcasting, having filled lengthy engagements at the Music Box and Blossom Heath Inn, Cleveland, where its programs were broadcast from Radio Station WTAM. The orchestra originated in Canada but in recent years has appeared almost exclusively in the United States.

Richards Ramblers, the Dorenberger orchestra and Coon Sanders Night Hawks, the orchestras which will follow the Lombardo Royal Canadians on the opening month's program here, have also achieved note in radio broadcasting.

NON-SUPPORT CHARGE DISMISSED BY JUDGE

The non-support charge filed against Raymond Klinge, of near Waldo, was dismissed by Municipal Judge Martin, yesterday afternoon, when evidence convinced the judge that the charge was not justifiable.

Under a common pleas court order, Klinge had been ordered to pay $20 a month for the support of his 19-month-old daughter. Testimony showed that Klinge made three payments until he lost his place of employment at a local factory and was forced to work on a farm at $20 a month. Out of the $30, Judge Martin was informed Klinge paid $16 for the support of his child.

Broken Threads

What Has Gone Before

At the home of PROF and MOLLIE ELWELL in Camden, Ind., one night in October, a woman who had been brought to a train. That night she was a twin girl and dies without revealing her name.

The story then moves forward to the time when MOLLIE and MARGARET ELWELL, the twins, are called MARY and BETTY.

MOLLIE ELWELL, the son, enlists in the World War. He then discovers that one of the twins loves him.

He is shell-shocked at the Battle of Sedan and at first is reported dead. Finally, however, he is identified in a New York hospital and the mother and father see him and find he has completely lost his memory and speech. He is like a living dead man.

At the hospital they are told by NURSE NELLIE DOWNING of the return from Europe of a celebrated brain specialist who might cure their son.

Now Begin the Story

CHAPTER XXVIII

SHORTLY after word was received that Dr. Lawson had sailed for America, an order went through transferring Jim Elwell to a hospital on Staten Island.

Here, within walking distance of the institution, Prof and Mollie again took up their residence and their vigil of waiting for circumstances or science to give them back their Jim of pre-war days. But circumstances and science work out their ends some times in ways that are slow and misleading.

Life on Staten Island was a welcome exchange from that of the restricted hospital environment of Brooklyn's suburbs. The institution was reached by trackless trolley from the downtown street car line which connected with the ferry.

A forest of oaks and maples surrounded the place. Sloping lawns and grassy dells with the salt air from the ocean and New York Bay made it a health resort of the most desirable kind. Motion picture shows and a cafeteria provided entertain and little luxuries for patients, nurses and doctors. Under more enjoyable conditions Prof and Mollie would have pronounced it an ideal place to pass the summer.

During these days Jim was taken on numerous trips to New York and once to Coney Island, accompanied by Prof. Mollie and Nellie Downing. Sometimes Mike Hennegan, still at the other hospital, would get a day off and visit them.

Mike Hennegan told Jim's mother one day, "If you ask me I think there's hope for the boy. He's a lot better off now than the day I first laid eyes on him in the other hospital."

Mike tipped his head. "Only," he said, "only there seems to be something wrong with the machinery up here. There's something that's either snapped or that's got a clog in the line somewhere. I've got a hunch we're gonna pull him through."

Mollie Elwell was grateful even for the poor assurance of a layman like Mike Hennegan. It was pitiful to Prof, watching her, to see how eagerly she nodded at Mike's words and pressed with more questions.

On occasions like this Prof Elwell would go off to a corner by himself and meditate. This thing, he told himself, was going to kill Mollie if something didn't happen. And the twins—away out there in Indiana, dying to see Jim, but it was so useless to let them see him in his present state. Not, at least, until they knew that nothing further could be done.

One day Prof and Mike Hennegan took Jim over to New York and up in the tower of the Woolworth Building. While he attracted some notice from the more observing ones by the more or less automatic manner in which he walked and handled himself, he was not particularly conspicuous. Prof taught him to pay his own fare on the trolley cars and at the ferry, and although he had no appreciation of money values he would take change when it was given to him and put it in his pocket. While lacking initiative to any appreciable extent, he seemed to possess powers of imitation nowadays to a marked degree.

These powers of imitation, however, were of a nature which occasionally brought about curious and sometimes rather embarrassing situations.

As one of the hospital doctors remarked to an interne one day, "Through imitative action he has learned to shake hands with any person who offers his hand. He has learned to put his arms around his mother and kiss her. This he often does of his own volition when she happens to be within easy reaching distance."

"If some nurse chances to be near, he is just as likely as not to try out his imitative powers on her."

The doctor laughed humorously. "The strange factor in this imitative tendency is that this Elwell seems to be equipped with a discriminating faculty for sorting out the good looking ones."

The interne laughed, too. "It would seem to be a little method in the man's madness."

"It has aroused a good deal of speculation. Could it be instinct that would lead a man to pick out a good looking girl, rather than a highly developed taste? You know, even among normal men there often exists a total disability to select a pretty girl."

"This nurse, Miss Downing, now. She's with the patient considerably—devotes nearly all her off hours to him or her parents. Naturally, she has come in for a share of these attentions from Elwell. And the funny part of it, man, is that she seems to like it!"

"I've seen the thing happen a couple of times myself—when nobody was with the patient but herself, and she did nothing to try to discourage him."

The interne ventured to say that it looked as if Nellie Downing had found considerable of an attraction in the good looking soldier with the lost memory.

"As far as looks go, she could have picked far worse, you'll admit."

"I do," said the doctor. "If she hasn't fallen in love with him—a little bit, at least—then it is one of the strangest cases of unselfish devotion on the part of a nurse that I have ever encountered. Why, man, she's been through hell over in France! She's seen so many terrible cases—men torn to pieces, men turned idiots, all kinds of men and hulks of men—that her interest in the Elwell case is—well, it's surprising, to say the least."

"You think there's any chance of his getting back on his feet?"

The doctor shrugged. "One man's guess is as good as another on that. You can go only so far, then you're stopped. I've seen shell-shock patients that seemed hopeless and seen them recover. But I've never seen one exactly like this."

It is true that Nellie Downing had come in for some of these "attentions" from Jim Elwell. But of course, as she told Jim's mother one day when Mollie chanced to observe Jim's newly acquired proficiency, it didn't mean anything.

Mollie, however, was not so sure about this. At least, there were certain aspects of the thing that puzzled her. She remembered about them later to Prof.

Uncrowned Kings

"I don't know that it would be so altogether improbable," she went on after telling of the incident she had witnessed, "that a girl might get to caring for a man even in Jim's condition when she is with him as much as Nellie Downing is with Jim."

"You know, Prof dear, Jim is uncommonly good looking. You're got to admit that."

Prof smiled. "Every mother thinks that of her son."

"But Jim really is. Of course, so far as he is concerned he doesn't realize in the least what he does. Even so, it is likely to cause talk just the same. And Nellie is a dear girl and has been awfully good to us. I should be very, very sorry if anything were to occur to hurt her. I think I shall have to try to un-teach Jim one of the things he has learned."

"I wouldn't worry, Mollie," Prof told her. "What if the girl does like him? She realizes what a condition he is in. And Jim, if he does recover, will remember that his sweetheart is back in Indiana."

Prof's eyes clouded. "Poor Rusty—or Dusty—whichever it is. Of course, I'd hate to see Nellie Downing hurt, but she realizes the conditions."

It has been said that there is considerable difficulty attached to teaching an old dog to new tricks. The records fail to state whether a young dog can be taught to undo old tricks.

Probably Jim had not acquired a regular habit of kissing Nellie Downing. Complete data on the subject were unobtainable. . . . He had just got a taste of something that seemed to be to his liking. It didn't mean anything, as Nellie Downing said. . . .

The announcement came finally that Dr. Lawson, the brain specialist, was back from Europe and would pay a visit to the Staten Island institution. A few days later he arrived.

Jim was given an examination. This long-anticipated event took up less than ten minutes of the great surgeon's time.

"There is no way," he told Prof and Mollie and Nellie Downing, "of determining the condition of a shell-shocked brain except by the removal of a portion of the skull bone. An X-ray through the bone seldom shows anything save a blur. The tissues of the brain may have become jumbled, or just a blood clot may be resting on a nerve center—pressing there is a better word."

In either case, he continued, an operation would be exceedingly dangerous. "It might result satisfactorily and it might not. If you want to take the chance I will operate, but I can give you no assurance that such an operation would be a success. No one would, I'm afraid. It might very easily prove fatal."

Was there any possibility, Prof Elwell asked him, of his recovering his memory without an operation?

"It depends entirely upon the condition of the brain," replied the surgeon guardedly. "If it is just a blood clot there a shock might jar it loose. Such a shock also might prove fatal."

"Why is it, Doctor," questioned Nellie Downing—and Prof's keen eyes noticed that she was trembling slightly—"if his thinking brain is wholly paralyzed—why is it that seeing tears in the eyes of another person sometimes brings tears to his own eyes and that music, especially that of a lullaby—something that was suggested by his mother—even causes him sometimes to break into sobs?"

The famous specialist was silent. He turned again and studied Jim Elwell.

Love's Embers

A Sequel to "Revelations of a Wife"

BY ADELE GARRISON
Veritien Looms as Sultor

AS Mary finished outlining her program for her future career, I looked squarely at her, this time making no attempt to hide a smile. I saw that the child had made an obsession of her remorse and was planning such absurd schemes of atonement that she needed the saving grace of a bit of ridicule.

Not that I disapproved of a course in home economics for any girl. But in Mary's case it ought to be a brief and sketchy one. She was—and I had Philip Veritien's trained judgment back of my opinion—that rarest of all creatures, the possessor of unmistakable genius. To put her into a routine of domesticity would be like harnessing a racing colt between the shafts of a milk cart. Even if she married, her husband would have to possess a mind big enough and broad enough to leave her comparatively untrammelled by home ties and to share her with the public to which inevitably she would belong.

So I let my amused smile change into a light laugh as I answered her. "Well, that might be the wisest course for you to pursue, after all. Mary, judging by the activities of a certain young man during the last week or two, I imagine Noel would particularly approve that determination of yours."

She flashed a startled glance at me, flushed adorably, tried unsuccessfully to pout, and finally broke into an echo of my laugh.

"I guess he would," she admitted.

simpler. "Oh, I don't mean that he wants to pin any special tag on me himself, but ever since that happened he's been talking about the terrible sacrifice a woman has to make to gain fame, and how it takes her youth, her beauty and her good times, and that a girl would be so much happier if she never had a career at all."

"That's a very good line," Mary said, deliberately using one of her own slang expressions. "But you haven't any idea that young Mr. Veritien is handing it out as an impersonal contribution to the world's philosophy, have you? No, I don't expect any answer to that, but I do expect that you'll go straight to your room now and get your beauty sleep while you have a chance. You know very well that before the afternoon is over the youthful lecturer upon woman will put in an appearance, and you want to be rested in order to listen to him, if not to answer him. Off with you, now; I'll send Katie up with a nice luncheon for you. You're altogether too fagged out to have to sit through luncheon downstairs."

The rose flush which my rallyer concerning Mr. Veritien had brought to her cheeks deepened into carmine as she again threw herself impetuously into my arms. I reflected that in no wise had the self-sufficient, somewhat hard little "woman" changed so much in her demonstrations of affection toward me. When she came to me she patently had been trying to pose as a self-contained woman of the world. But since the night when her world had come crashing around her head and we had rescued her from Jack Leslie, she had clung to me in an emotional, childish fashion, which called forth my tenderness and pity.

"You're so good to me, Auntie Marge," she exclaimed. "I don't deserve you. I wonder if a bad girl ever had so good a friend before. But you're an awful tease, and you know what you say about Noel—isn't a bit true. He only—"

"Did you ever hear of the lady who protested too much?" I answered, laughing. "Don't copy her, but come along with me. I see that you're not going to obey me, therefore I'm going to put you to bed as I would Junior." Still laughing at her, I went with her to her own room and helped her get into a nightgown. Then I tucked her up in bed, opened the window, drew the shades, switched on the reading lamp at the head of her bed and gave her a magazine.

"Now," I said authoritatively, "you may read until Katie comes up with your luncheon tray. When you have eaten and she has taken it away I shall expect you to switch off your lamp and go to sleep. I will call you in plenty of time to dress and receive any chance visitors."

Ruts

MANY a man of brilliant promise has been lost in a rut of despair. Has seen his enthusiasm, his prospects, blighted! Himself powerless to prevent it—dully realizing that he no longer had the energy to stand the pace. . . . What can crush a man's spirit so completely?

Indeed, what is constipation? More—far more—than the average person realizes. It destroys health. It steals strength. It sickens the mind and leads to suffering and disease! Yet no one need be afflicted with this curse. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation—promptly, safely.

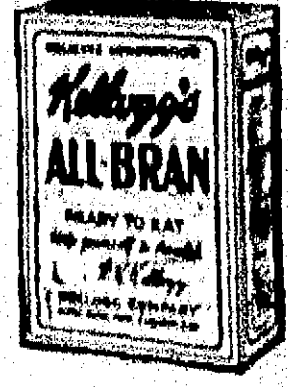

Why part-bran products fail!

ALL-BRAN is 100% "bulk." This bulk absorbs moisture and carries it throughout the intestines, gently distending them—cleaning, removing wastes and poisons. In a part-bran product the quantity of bulk is so small it scarcely accomplishes anything! Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN because they know it is 100% bran—100% effective.

So different from dangerous pills! How much better to rely upon healthful ALL-BRAN than habits forming pills and drugs. ALL-BRAN is delicious with milk or cream—and add fruits or honey. Let it soak a few moments to bring out all its nut-like flavor. Use it with other cereals. In soups. Try the recipes on every package.

Don't risk part-bran substitutes. Insist on genuine Kellogg's. Sold by all grocers. Served at hotels, restaurants. On diners. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

SEARCH FOR SLAYER OF CLOCK-MAKER IS MADE

Body, with Deep Gashes in Head, Found in Shack Near Chagrin Falls

Cleveland, April 19.—A search was being made today for the murderer of John C. Compton, 31, clock-maker, employed by the Webb C. Ball Co. here, who was found beaten to death near Chagrin Falls, late last night.

The body was found, with several deep gashes on the head, in a shack just outside the Chagrin Falls corporation line, by Joseph Farkas, owner of a hardware store. Furniture was strewn about the shack, indicating that a terrific struggle had taken place.

Police had been missing from his home here since Sunday, and relatives and friends were hunting him.

Police say John Burbridge, his wife and 15-year-old son, who occupied the shack near Chagrin Falls, are missing. Neighbors told detectives that the Burbridge family drove away from the cottage about noon Monday.

A bottle, which had apparently contained liquor, was found in the shack police declared.

DEATH TAKES ONE OF FOUR AGED BROTHERS

WHITESBURG, Ky., April 19.—Three brothers, all past four score years, mourn the death of an older brother, "Uncle Chuck," Webb, 95, which has broken up a remarkable family in the mountains of Kentucky and the bonds of a quartet of brothers.

Direct descendants of Daniel Boone, famous woodsman and Indian fighter, the Webbs have for many years been noted figures in Letcher and adjoining counties. The hardship of their forefathers was maintained by the Webbs to a marked degree.

Webb's Good Enough

"Uncle Chuck," most prominent survivors are his brothers, Sam Webb, 93, a Confederate pensioner, lives at Thompson Creek. He is active and passes much of his time walking through the country.

Next to "Uncle" Sam is "Dutch"

Webb, who is 86. Until a short time ago, "Uncle Dutch" was employed as a railroad section hand. He, too, is active and alert and appears 20 years younger than he is.

The other brother is "Fiddle Joe" Webb, 82, the "baby" of the family. He lives at Bottomfork, near Mayking, this county.

Strangers appear doubtful when told of his age. His physical faculties seem to have dimmed but slightly with the years.

Tony Kautz, 62, of Pittsburgh, arrested here several days ago when the fact that he had only one eye led to the belief that he might be an escaped convict from Ohio Penitentiary, was released yesterday afternoon on orders from Chief of Police Thompson.

Kautz was given his liberty when investigation showed beyond doubt that he was not the penitentiary fugitive. The man sought is Rufus Deede, sent to the penitentiary from Lawrence County on a burglary charge. Deede also has only one eye and resembles Kautz in other respects, although there is about 15 years difference in their ages. A photograph of Deede was received from the penitentiary by the local police department yesterday.

Deede and several other prisoners escaped from the state prison about two weeks ago.

about used car allowances

Most new car sales now involve the trading-in of a buyer's used car. More and more people are asking: "Why should my used car seem to have several values?.... Why should dealers in different makes of cars offer me allowances differing materially?.... Does the largest allowance offered mean the best deal for me?"

Here are basic facts:

- 1 Your used car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.
- 2 Your used car has only one fundamental basis of value: what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.
- 3 The largest trade-in allowance which is offered on your used car is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; but sometimes it is not.
- 4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.
- 5 Judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your used car.

When you are ready to trade-in your present car, remember that after all you are making a purchase and not a sale. You are buying a new car and simply applying your present car as a credit toward the purchase price of the new car.

GANG LEADERS RETURN AFTER DISAPPEARING

Chicagoans Refuse To Tell
Where They Have Been;
Ransom Reported Asked

Chicago, April 10—Jake Adler and Frank Gall, wealthy owners of the Midnight Frolics Cabaret, were back in their old haunts today after a mysterious disappearance of six days.

The return of Adler and Gall, recognized leaders of a powerful south-side gang, was as mystifying as their disappearance. They refused to tell where they had been.

It was reported soon after they vanished that they had been kidnaped by a rival band of gangsters who are said to have demanded heavy ransom for their return.

It was known that members of the Adler-Gall combine raised $100,000 to pay the kidnapers. Whether or not this sum was paid, the authorities could not learn.

Tony Albino, Gall's chauffeur, who disappeared at the same time, also was back in his home today. Police learned all three men were released, blindfolded, at three different street intersections, at intervals of 30 minutes each.

INAUGURATE THOMPSON AS MAYOR OF CHICAGO

"Big Bill" Declares War on School Head; River Trip
Started

Chicago, April 10—The big guns of the William Hale Thompson administration began booming today, following "Big Bill's" formal inauguration as mayor of Chicago before 2,500 citizens in the city hall last night.

In his inaugural address Thompson declared war on William McAndrew, superintendent of schools, who he charges is too "pro-British for any American community." He declared he would not rest until McAndrew is ousted.

The second objective, he said, was the repeal of the water meter ordinance, a bill which makes compulsory the measuring of all water consumed in homes throughout the city.

After the colorful inauguration ceremonies, the mayor and 500 of his friends set off on a steamboat journey down the Mississippi River to celebrate the passage of the "lakes to the gulf" waterway bill.

Spring Presbytery Meeting Being Held at Mt. Gilead Church

CURTIS PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO CHARGE OF MURDER

MORE ARRESTS ARE EXPECTED IN CASE SOON

James "Bob" Madden To Be Taken from Medina to Bucyrus

April 19—More arrests are expected within the next few days in connection with the murder of Clarence Crestline, Friday night, April 8, according to information given out by the authorities today.

At least two men have been arrested, one of whom has entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of first degree murder, and one woman has been held as a material witness in the case.

The arrested men are William Curtis, 24, Youngstown, and James "Bob" Madden, both alleged members of the Crestline bandit gang which came to grief with the death of its leader in a gun battle with officers after a holdup in a Lodi jewelry store.

Curtis was arraigned before Judge Waldhauser Crestline, last night entered a plea of not guilty. Madden was being brought here today from Medina, where he was placed under arrest.

Lillian Wells, alias Lillian Sherwood, Toledo, is the woman held as a material witness in the case.

Love Innocent Victim

According to the theory held by officials regarding the case, Curtis, Madden and Turner were the three men who held the Ambrose Horton Blinn station at Gallon on the night of the murder. After making a successful getaway the party drove to Crestline with the intention of holding up a collector. Love was mistook for this man and his resistance when accosted near the quarry bridge on the Lincoln Highway, west of Crestline, cost him his life.

Curtis is said to have admitted his complicity in the killing station holdup and strongly denied his connection with the murder or the holdup at Lodi.

Three Kenton Youths Change Pleas to Guilty

Action on Water Franchise by Mt. Gilead Council and Utility Officials Delayed

Routine Business Occupies Group's Attention Instead of Scheduled Discussion Because of Several Members' Absence; Stine and Maloney Present

Mt. Gilead, April 19—The Mt. Gilead Village council held a short meeting last night and transacted routine business.

Last night's meeting had been designated for a meeting of representatives of the U. S. D. & M. officials, controlling the Mt. Gilead Water, Light, Heat & Power Company, relative to action on the water franchise, which had been prepared for the council by Attorney J. H. Gougeon, and which was approved at the last meeting of the council and submitted to the company. Auditor Stine and Attorney Maloney of Marion, were present, but for the reason that a full council was not present, there was no discussion. They will return at the next meeting of the council.

In the absence of the mayor and president of the council, Councilman Ault was chosen president. Clerk Burton reported receipts amounting to $35.62. Routine bills were allowed. The labor report of the street commissioner was received.

The clerk was authorized to borrow $1000 on the service fund.

To Erect Stop Signs

The street commissioner was directed to remove the stop signs at the intersection of Vine and North-sts. and to locate one of them at the intersection of Union with Main-st. This is considered the most dangerous corner in town. Some time ago, the stop sign was wrecked by a truck and since that time, it was stated, there have been several accidents on that corner.

A number of complaints in regard to streets and alleys were referred to the street committee, with power to act.

Consent of the council was secured to use the new five-ton roller and scraper to put the High school ball diamond at the Fair Grounds in good shape. It is expected that the work will be done before Friday's game.

BANDIT TRIO IS SENTENCED BY JUDGE HOGE

Will Serve Time at Mansfield for Hotel Holdup and Theft

Kenton, April 19—Changing their pleas to "guilty," three Kenton youths indicted by the Hardin County grand jury for robbery in connection with the theft of more than $200 from the St. Nicholas hotel office safe here a week ago, were given indeterminate sentences to the Mansfield reformatory Monday by Judge Hamilton H. Hoge.

The three—Donald Campbell, 17, Paul Frostcrack, 17, and Donald Hart, 18—were taken to Mansfield to commence their prison term within a day or two.

When arraigned last Friday the defendants pleaded "not guilty" to the grand jury indictment and they were held in the county jail under heavy bond for joint trial, April 26.

Confession Made

According to police and an alleged confession made by the trio, they left on the night of the holdup at the hotel at the point of revolvers and then filled the safe, taking silver, currency and notes. They had planned the holdup to secure sufficient funds to take them to California. Less than two hours after the robbery they were arrested in their homes and within 14 hours, the grand jury then in session, returned true bills against them.

All of the loot has been recovered. Lester Nichols, McElroy, indicted for shooting with intent to kill or wound, in connection with the shooting of a brother-in-law west of here following a quarrel over an alleged stolen auto tire, pleaded "not guilty" before Judge Hoge Monday, and he is being held under $500 bond for trial May 2.

SOCIETY MEET

Gallon Group Uses Fancy Dresses in Costume Discussion

Gallon, April 19—The Women's Missionary Society of the First Reformed Church met last night for their regular monthly session. A continued study of the textbook, "Modern Women," was in charge of Mrs. Homer Hensch, Mrs. D. B. Shuey led the devotionals and Mrs. Flora Lewis and Mrs. William Hocker gave reports of the convention of the district which was held in Basil recently.

During the discussion five members of the organization were dressed to represent various foreign countries, Egypt, Arabia, Persia, Dutch East Indies and Turkey.

Habits of dress and customs were explained, making the meeting one of the most interesting of the year.

PRETTY WEDDING HELD AT MARYSVILLE CHURCH

Miss Elizabeth Schlegel, Marysville, Weds Clarence Haggard, Kenton

Marysville, April 19—A very pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized Easter morning at seven o'clock in the English Lutheran Church, when Miss Elizabeth Schlegel of this city became the bride of Clarence Haggard of Kenton. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. G. D. Keister.

Miss Ruth Schlegel, sister of the bride, played "The Walnut Tree" and "To a Wild Rose" on the violin, accompanied by Miss Marys Middleworth at the organ. Miss Middleworth played the Lohengrin wedding march while the bridal party assembled at the altar and during the service soft strains of "For You Alone" were played. Miss Fern Berger and Carl Gerhold of Kenton were the attendants.

Many relatives and friends were present and witnessed the service. The happy couple left immediately for a short motor trip after which they will reside in Kenton. Mrs. Haggard graduated from Marysville High School in 1922 and from Grant Hospital school for nurses in 1925. For the past year she very efficiently served as public health nurse of Union County. Mr. Haggard graduated from Kenton high school in 1920, attended Wittenberg college and Miami university.

To Hold Annual Recreational Ball Banquet Tonight

MUTUALS WIN TITLE IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Beat Motorcycles to Take Lead Over Bradley Drugs; Margin is Only Two Tilts

Motorcycles Must Win All Three of Final Postponed Match with Dugans To Finish in Possession of Third Place; Smart & Waddell Threaten for That Berth

THE Mutual Mutual Life Insurance Co. bowlers are champions of the National League. They gained that title last night when they defeated the Motorcycles three games in a postponed match. With the schedule completed, the Mutuals are leading their closest rivals, the Bradley Drugs, by a margin of two games. The Mutual crew has won 55 and lost 29 out of 84 games rolled. The Drugs have won 53 and lost 31. Jim Dugan's men set the pace in the National League during the first 80 games but, with the season only about a third gone, they slumped. They are now in fifth place and have three more games to roll.

Drugs Lead
The Drugs then took the lead and held it until the final match of the season, although always threatened by the Mutuals. The Drugs closed their season a week ago and at that time were in second place in percentage although they had won more games than the Mutuals, who had the postponed Motorcycle match to bowl.

The Mutuals took the first game last night by a majority of more than 100 pins. Three of the five Mutual men rolled over the 200 mark. They slipped through the second contest with an eight-point margin and took the third by a large number of points.

The Motorcycle must now win all three of their postponed games with Dugans if they wish to land in third place as the season closes. Only one more match remains and that involves the Cyclones.

Members of Team
Members of the winning Mutual team, explained by Metz, are Kline, Schuler, Stewart, H. Foster, Thomas and Dorwood. Thomas was high scorer in a single game last night, rolling 223 in the final contest. McMill bowled 212 for the Motorcycles. Kline, Schuler, and Stewart of the Mutuals all went over the 200 mark.

RAISE FUNDS TO SEND CREWS TO POUGHKEEPSIE

Seattle, April 19.—Crew day was celebrated here today when 275 campaign workers opened a drive for $10,050 with which to send two University of Washington crews east to compete in the annual Poughkeepsie Regatta, which the Washington varsity won last year. Students themselves will give $2,000, it was expected.

It is important to have an enthusiast in the business; and the sales department is universally believed to be the best place for him.

There is a kind of satisfaction in seeing the intolerant rapped over the knuckles.

Anticipation is a rosy part of a vacation trip, but reminiscence has a sadder glow.

THE "PUSH 'EM IN" PAIR

East Side Ace Five Has Successful Cage Season

The East Side Aces, one of Marion's leading amateur basketball teams, won seven out of 18 games during the past season, a check-up made today by Manager George Peaton reveals.

The Aces won two of the seven, Martel Lion Tamers were victors over the locals, Howitzer won a game, Bucyrus Shaws were winners, and the K. C. quintet defeated the Aces. The Aces finally defeated the Midways a few weeks ago and have also won over Howitzer.

Fetter was high score man for the East Side crew this season. He scored 112 points. Bob Peaton was next with 93, Yazel had 88 and Lingo scored 64. Other players were Sargent, 38; Barton, 21; Fisher, 19; Shoor, 19; Shultz, 13; Gambol, 10; and Arndt, 11.

The Aces have disbanded for the season but will again organize next year and expect to come back stronger than ever.

Albert Williams, paper hanger, 1710 Hamilton Ave., Cleveland, O., writes: "I had a sharp pain in my back and my kidneys were so active that I would have to get out of bed many times during a night to answer the call of Nature."

"I always felt tired and sometimes I would have headaches and dizzy spells. Since taking five bottles of Redwood's Tepee Tonic the pain in my back is gone and I do not have to get out of bed on account of excessive kidney action. It is seldom that I have a headache."

"I have a good appetite and enjoy my food. My bowels are regular and I am stronger in a general way."

ELECT GEORGE STAFFORD HEAD OF HI-Y CLUB

Basketball and Football Teams Are Entertained at Club Banquet

George Stafford last night was elected president of the Hi-Y Club for the coming year in a business session of that organization prior to the banquet given for members of the Harding High basketball and football teams of the past season. The banquet was held in the Y. M. C. A. dining room with about 60 attending.

Charles Evans was chosen vice president of the Hi-Y, Walter Moore will serve as secretary, and Ed Sloan was re-elected treasurer for the coming year.

Joe Rinnert, past president of the Hi-Y, acted as toastmaster at the banquet last night, which proved to be one of the most successful affairs of its nature ever put on by the Hi-Y.

Francis W. Bacon, personnel director of the Marion Steam Shovel Co., was the principal speaker of the event. Mr. Bacon talked on athletics and their relation to business. He stated that courage and self-control were essential for any athlete and the same characteristics were just as important in business.

Others persons present were called upon for brief talks. Concludes "Baldy" Compton and Paul Sprout of Harding High athletic teams, each gave short addresses as did Captain Horn of last season's football team; Captain-elect Charles Kramer of the grid team for the coming year; Hugh Shultz, Bud Lewis and George Stafford.

George W. Gauthier, Head of Athletics at Wesleyan, to Address Huge Meeting

One Hundred Seventy-Five Expected at Annual Gathering of Players, Managers and Fans at First Reformed Church; Banquet To Be Held at 6:30 O'Clock

ONE hundred and seventy-five recreational ball players, managers, captains and fans are expected to attend the annual banquet to be held at 6:30 tonight in First Reformed Church, S. Prospect.

A check-up on tickets last night showed almost 150 sold up to that time and five managers have not yet reported. All indications point to one of the greatest meetings ever held in the history of the Marion Recreational Ball League.

Athletic Director George W. Gauthier of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, is the speaker. He is probably one of the best known men in college and university sport circles in Ohio and surrounding states. Mr. Gauthier will give a general talk on athletics.

The annual banquet of the recreational ball association has been one of the greatest events of the organization since it was formed and is always looked forward to by those who will attend. It is one of the greatest events in Marion sports each year.

At present, enthusiasm over recreational ball is growing in Marion. Almost every available diamond is in use each afternoon as some team or teams prepare for the coming season. More teams than ever before have already organized, according to reports.

Tex Rickard May Have to Enter Court To Clear Path for Bout

New York, April 19.—Promoter Tex Rickard will be compelled to take legal action to clear the way for his proposed heavyweight elimination bout between Jack Sharkey and Jim Maloney here on May 19, it appeared today. Walter Taylor, Cleveland promoter who claims he holds a prior contract on Maloney's services for a bout in Cleveland against Johnny Risko, has obtained a federal injunction against the bout between the two Boston heavyweights.

In the next three weeks Rickard must present arguments to show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent. Rickard also is threatened with legal action by Tom Goodwin, Boston promoter, who says he has signed both Sharkey and Maloney for bouts with Tom Heeney, Australian heavyweight.

Inter-Class Recreational Ball is Planned at Harding

SIX TEAMS IN LEAGUE FORMED AMONG CLASSES

Bohyer To Have Charge of Games; Faculty To Enter

HARDING High classes will play recreational ball this year. It was announced today.

A meeting of the classes held yesterday afternoon after school hours, was organized with the purpose of forming a league expecting to enter. The league will include Vernon Heights, Junior High, Faculty, Sophomore, Juniors and Seniors. Dewey will supervise the league.

Mr. Bohyer will take charge of the league as a whole. The league has been elected captain of the sophomore recreational ball team. Charles Evans will lead the team, and Tuttle will have charge of the Seniors.

The classes, the Juniors and Seniors, will play hard ball in addition to recreational ball but no league nature will be formed in that way.

During the last few years, Harding has always had inter-class baseball. The substitution of soft ball is a new event in the high school sport. Recreational ball was chosen in preference to baseball by popular vote of the students who will take part in the league will be played on the school on various days when weather conditions are ideal.

Hollis Thurston Stops Red Sox and Leads Washington Pitchers; Yanks Win Again

Giants and Pirates Continue Rampage in National League; Cincy Reds Are Rained Out; Cleveland Indians Get 3 to 2 Decision from Detroit

New York, April 13.—They say that one man's paradise is another's prison, and maybe that accounts for the fact that Hollis Thurston, who won only six games for the White Sox last year, is leading the Washington pitchers today with two victories and no defeats. After holding the Red Sox to four hits last Thursday, the young man came back faster than a bad check yesterday and whitewashed the Athletics, 4 to 0.

Thurston is proving to be a life-saver for Stanley Harris, whose pitching staff was crippled before the season started by the injury to Walter Johnson. He apparently has regained the form which once made him one of the leading pitchers in the league.

The Senators made all their runs in the first inning yesterday. Bluge made his first hit of the season with the bases jammed.

Yankees Win Another

Dutch Ruether, of the Yankees, also won his second game within a week's time, blanking the Red Sox, 3 to 0. He allowed but three hits. The Yanks now have won six straight and apparently are determined to clinch the pennant by the fourth of July.

The third pitcher of the day to win his second game this season was Lee Meadows of the Pirates, who held the Cubs to four hits and beat them 9 to 1. Riggs Stephenson, converted from an outfielder into a third baseman by Manager Joe McCarthy, got to dreaming about his football days at the University of Alabama and booted two grounders for perfect top kicks.

Giants Win

The Giants kept pace with the Pirates by nocking out the Braves, 11 to 10, in the eleventh inning. The Braves took a lot of beating and tied the score three times, once with a six run rally.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, who apparently are endeavoring to discover a new

Gene Tunney to Take $900,000 for His Share in Next Title Bout, Says Walsh

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

NEW YORK, April 13.—Gene Tunney will take for his piffing bit of the next heavyweight championship fight the sum of $900,000, provided both the opponent and the scene of the great harvest are conducive to results, the writer learned today.

It will be paid in the form of a guarantee amounting to $225,000 last night on a glove, and a cut on the receipts, amounting to 50 per cent of all box office money in excess of $1,000,000.

Tunney himself, in person, not a vicarage, will arrive in New York within a matter of several days primarily to collect the interest on the dear old mortgage but incidentally to press Tex Rickard for an answer as to whether the heavyweight title fight will be dropped down in Philadelphia or New York or neither.

The young man, they say, wants to fight this one in New York for old time's sake, or wants to that general effect. But I'm not compelled to believe it and I don't.

In fact, Tunney has told friends that he wants to defend the title in the city where he won it, Philadelphia. This automatically would provide the proper setting for that $900,000 purse and it would be up to Rickard to provide the proper opponent, who figured from the money end, can be no one else but Dempsey.

Can Dempsey Fight?

The boys, as a matter of fact, have it well figured in advance, leaving not a loose end except for the question of whether Dempsey can fight above a whisper. The last Dempsey-Tunney match drew about $1,800,000 in Philadelphia and there you have the answer to that old sum on the percentage cut. Take $1,000,000 from $1,800,000 and you have a remainder of $750,000. Tunney's 50 per cent drag on this would be $375,000, which added to his guarantee, brings the total up to $900,000, exceeding Dempsey's record purse of last September by $150,000.

In brief, Dempsey is the necessary opponent; Philadelphia is the necessary scene, unless there is something in this talk about shifting the bout to Chicago, where as many if not more, clock and suit men can be accommodated. Anghow, the word is that it will not be New York for several reasons.

Not in New York

One of them is said to be Tunney's irritation over the fact that New York would have none of his challenge of Dempsey last summer. Another is the financial and, therefore, more pressing reason that New York, at its present scale of prices and the size of its ball parks, cannot compete with the other two cities on receipts.

The boys may be in the game merely for the improvement of the breed of patrons, or something, but they want you to know that they can't improve anything, not even a three-card flush, without money. They got it in Philadelphia last time with Dempsey; they will try again with him, if he can be mustered out of his skin eruptions, and without him only under violent protest. No one else will ever get $1,800,000 worth of customers out in the open, Tunney or no Tunney.

ANOTHER SCALP FOR BELT OF BUD TAYLOR

Latest Victim Is Young Nationalist; Goes Down in Fifth Round

Los Angeles, April 13.—A new scalp dangled today from the diamond studded belt of Bud Taylor, the "blind terror of Terre Haute," who is recognized in 18 states of the Union as bantamweight champion of the world.

Taylor's latest victim is Young Nationalist, who succumbed to a technical knockout in the fifth round in the main event at Wrigley Field here last night.

After a poor start in the first round, Taylor came out like a panther and buried the Filipino under an one-sided whipping as had been seen in any local ring.

In the semi-windup, George Godfrey knocked out Leon Chevalier in the fourth round of a scheduled 10 round bout. Both are negroes and weighed over 200 pounds.

GIVE me a pipe and Prince Albert, and you can have your cabin-cruiser and your winter vacation. I won't envy you for a minute. In fact, I wouldn't trade places with anybody. I could even be happy on a desert island with a pipe and plenty of P.A.

You'll understand my enthusiasm for this prince of smokes the minute you open the tidy red tin and get a whiff of real tobacco. But that's only a starter. The taste more than lives up to the promise of the aroma. Tuck a load in your jammy-pipe, light up, and see.

Cool, as a breeze from the forward deck is cool. Sweet, with a sweetness that doesn't tire. Mild as milk, yet with plenty of body to let you know you're smoking. P.A. is neither too heavy nor too light, which makes it the middle-weight champ, so far as I'm concerned.

Telling you about Prince Albert is one thing. Trying it in your pipe is another. You'll never know exactly what it is that holds millions of happy jammy-pipers to this one brand until you make the personal test. When you do, you'll say I did you a favor in tipping you off.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, round and half-round tin tins, and round crystal glass humidors with sponge-maintenance top. And always with name, size of tin and brand marked by the Prince Albert process.

When we got in school the teacher looked at us both like we were bugs and told us we might stay after school, and then she turned and looked at Youniss and Jubilee, where did you go? and such beautiful things so early in the season. I should like to go out and get some. So then I knew that it was the teacher that brought them to her. I didn't care anyway. A girl has got to have any fella bring her a present.

I was not made at the Lost Bag of Trippe any more and when we and him got out of school the whole bunch had went somewhere and there was no one waiting but Youniss and Jubilee, and

Peter's Adventures

A Story for Boys and Girls

BY FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

MR. FOX IS FOILED
PETER caught the note of fear in Chipmunk's cry and without turning to see how close behind him was the enemy, Cutie Fox, he sped over the ground at a speed that ever after when he thought of it, astonished him. Gasping for breath but safe, he dashed headlong into the hole in the ground through which he had seen Chipmunk's bush red tail disappearing.

Lucky for Peter that he had heard and heeded the warning of the little elf. Lucky for him that he had not stopped to look behind him. Entering the burrow, head first, Peter stumbled and fell and before he could pick himself up, the faint light that there had been in that underground passage went out. Something was blocking up the entrance—something that snarled and grined its teeth and barked.

"Think you are smart, don't you, you

STOP BAD BREATH

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous cathartics do without any of the bad after effects.

Olive Tablets bring no griping, pain or any disagreeable effect. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after 20 years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take nightly for a week and note the effect. 15c, 50c, 60c. All druggists. Adv.

Ford-Sapiro Woman Juror Accused, Libel Trial Adjourns

MISTRIAL MAY BE DEMANDED BY ATTORNEYS

Woman Is Charged with Expressing Strong Opposition to Auto Magnate

Detroit, April 19.—The $1,000,000 Ford-Sapiro libel suit was adjourned today until Thursday pending further investigation by Federal Judge Fred S. Raymond of serious charges against a woman juror in the case.

Official notice that a mistrial would be demanded as a result of the charges leveled at the woman juror was served on the court by Stewart Hanley, of Henry Ford's counsel.

The illness of Sen. James A. Reed, chief of Ford's attorneys, was cited by Hanley as an additional reason for the adjournment. The delay was granted at once by Judge Raymond.

William H. Gallagher, chief of Aaron Sapiro's counsel, created another stir by complaining to the court against the activities of Ford detectives in and about the courtroom.

Gallagher said he had been informed that the Ford secret police were talking to jurors "whether to learn their state of mind or to influence them, I am unable to say."

Name Withheld

When called upon by the court to produce some proof, Gallagher said he was without evidence necessary for formal action.

The possibility that a mistrial will be declared loomed strongly after the brief morning session. This would eliminate the five weeks of testimony taken so far and necessitate starting the trial all over again.

The charges against the woman juror, whose name was known but withheld at the direction of the court, were that she expressed strong opposition to Henry Ford. On one occasion, she was reported to have said she would "give Ford the limit" in the libel case. A number of affidavits, reciting the juror's remarks, were filed with the court.

COULDN'T LEAVE HUBBY

MARY LEWIS AND MICHAEL BOHNER

New York, April 19.—Mary Lewis, Metropolitan opera singer from Little Rock, Ark., was on her way to Europe today with her newly-acquired husband, Michael Bohner, leaving a string of broken engagements behind.

She had intended to remain in this country to fill her concert engagements, despite the fact that she was married only last Thursday, and went to the pier last night to see Bohner off. But the thought of parting was too much for her, and Mrs. Bohner made a dash for her apartment, where she gathered together a few clothes and her passport, returning just in time to board the ship.

"My engagements will have to cancel themselves," she said. "I haven't time."

AL SMITH CONSIDERS CHURCH DEBATE ENDED

New York Governor Will Not Answer Marshall's Reply, He Says

Absecon, N. J., April 19.—Gov. Al Smith of New York considers the church-state debate ended with his letter to Charles C. Marshall, in which he set forth his creed as an American Catholic, in reply to an article by Marshall in the Atlantic Monthly.

Following the publishing of the governor's letter Marshall wrote a second statement, seeking to strengthen his contention that Roman Catholicism and the American Constitution conflict.

This the governor will leave unanswered, as he believes that his original reply, in which he said that there was no conflict between church and state and the two were entirely separated, fully answered the question and made clear his stand on the issue.

Congratulations on his stand continued today to reach the governor from all parts of the country.

"COMEBACK" OF GERMANY 1926 TRADE FEATURE

Commerce Department Reveals World Trade Last Year 57 Billions

Washington, April 19.—The outstanding feature of world trade in 1926 was the remarkable "come back" of Germany, which alone of the important commercial nations sold more goods in foreign markets than during the preceding year.

Statistics disclosing a total world trade of about $57,500,000,000 last year were made public today by the commerce department.

Passing France, Germany became the third most important exporting nation in 1926, having sold abroad goods valued at $2,352,400,000, a gain of $258,200,000 from the year before. German sales in 1926 were only slightly under the figure of 1913. German import business, however, fell off 15 per cent.

Close to Pre-War

On the other hand French foreign sales fell $245,000,000 reaching a level of $1,928,000,000 last year. France was close to $200,000,000 beyond pre-war averages.

Great Britain accounted for approximately $10,000,000,000 out of the total world trade for the year. For 18 countries, which do about three-fourths of the business, there was a loss of five per cent for the year.

The United States developed total trade of $9,495,000,000. Britain and its possessions purchased from other nations goods valued at $9,254,200,000 and sold the world commodities of a $7,680,400,000 valuation.

As an individual nation the United States carried off honors as an exporter, having shipped abroad goods valued at $1,808,500,000, compared to $3,775,000,000 for the United Kingdom. The United Kingdom was the largest inof the city, where he is explaining this surprising new medical preparation, Konjola, that has produced such astonishing results in so many instances of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel disorders and rheumatic and neuritic troubles. At the same time report after report is now being received in Marion from larger cities where Konjola has already been introduced, in which the amazing work of this celebrated medicine in actual cases is described. For instance, the following statement was recently made by Mrs. M. L. Raymond, well-known Indianapolis lady living at 1137 College Ave., that city.

"Your Konjola has given me the first real, lasting relief I ever had from kidney and bladder trouble and nervousness, and since I have taken this medicine I am in the best of health in general and feel fine again," said Mrs. M. L. Raymond.

"I had been down in bed for several weeks," continued Mrs. Raymond. "I always had kidney and bladder trouble, especially the past 3 years, and seemed to get worse instead of better. Night rising was almost constant and severe burning irritation would seize me and keep to rack every nerve in my body. Terrible, sharp pains would appear in the region of my kidneys, and these spells would keep me awake over half the night. My nerves were all unstrung and I had a nervous breakdown shortly before I started taking Konjola."

"My husband was taking this medicine, and got wonderful results, so I decided to try it myself, and although I was down in bed at the time, I will state that Konjola made such improvement in my whole system that I was able to get up and do some of the house work in a very short time. Of course, I kept right on taking this medicine, and now I feel as good as I ever did in my life. The awful burning pains are relieved and I never have the back-aches any more. I am not subject to night rising, and my nerves are in better condition than they have been in years. I used to fly all at pieces at the least excitement, but now my nerves are strengthened and I can rest well at nights."

"I have benefited in every way through the use of Konjola and gladly endorse such a medicine."

The Konjola Man is at Stump & Sams, (formerly Stump Pharmacy), 121 S. Main St., Marion's busiest downtown section and the easiest to get to where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.—Adv.
